

to move from one place to another	migration	extra big	colossal
a whole lot	plethora	someone who loves words	logomaniac
library	athenaeum	extra	supplementary
a word that describes a sound, like hoot	onomatopoeia	mad or angry	irate
friends	companions	a flighty or whimsical person	flibbertigibbet

Defino-Dino is here to help you with your vocabulary! With the help of an adult, cut each of these double-sided flash cards around the dotted lines. Fold them in half with the word on one side and its definition on the other and tape or glue it shut. Soon you'll have a vocabulary just as colossal as Theo's!

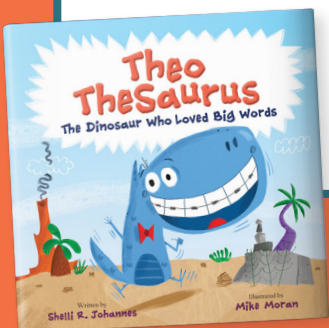

Fill in the blanks in each sentence using the word bank below.

WORD BANK

salutations cantankerous
shenanigans forlorn
confused

1. Theo felt _____ before his first day of school. He didn't want to go because he was worried no one would understand him.
2. Theo did not want to participate in any of his friends' _____. He was too tired.
3. Theo's big words _____ his classmates and friends.
4. When you greet someone, you can say _____ or hello!
5. When someone is _____, it might be best to leave them alone.

Answer Key: 1. forlorn; 2. shenanigans; 3. confused; 4. salutations; 5. cantankerous

A blue cartoon dinosaur with a red bow tie, holding a green book, surrounded by red hearts. The dinosaur is smiling and has its eyes closed. The background is white with faint blue and green brushstrokes behind the dinosaur. There are several red hearts floating around the dinosaur. The entire illustration is positioned in the bottom right corner of the page, leaving the rest of the page blank for writing.

